
THIS WEEK AT ST. ANNE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

A Service for Healing - Wednesdays at 12:10 in the Chapel. A weekly Service of Healing is offered, which includes special prayers and an (optional) opportunity to come forward for laying-on-of-hands and personal, confidential prayers for healing. Everyone is welcome to participate, regardless of whether or not you feel you need special prayers for healing. The experience of a mid-week healing service is often refreshing. Please contact the Church Office or clergy if you have any questions.

The Food Bag Ministry needs donations! Please bring one or more food items to church with you on Sunday or drop off donations to the Church Office during the week. Our next Food Bag distribution will be on Tuesday, August 14th. A few suggested items to donate: Pasta & pasta sauce, canned protein (tuna, salmon, chicken), rice, beans, canned veggies, soup, Chef Boyardee-type products, Mac 'n Cheese, protein/granola bars, crackers, breakfast cereal, oatmeal, powdered milk, and juice cans & boxes. Frozen fruits & vegetables may be put in the new freezer located in the pantry next to the kitchen.

Flower Watering, Weeding & Grass Cutting at the Town Church & Church Office - We need volunteers to take a turn watering and weeding the flower beds and/or mowing the grass at the Town Church and Church Office. Sign-up sheets and simple instructions are posted on the bulletin board in the Town Church. Questions? Contact Mark Cavanaugh at 302-690-0424 or markjcavanaugh@comcast.net.

Worship Participants for Today - 8:00AM Readers: Kathy Means & Rachel Mandes.
Altar Guild: Kathy Cavanaugh & Judy Shackelford.

Parish Prayers: Kay Bennett, Kathy Cavanaugh and Marie Webb. If you would like to add a name to the Parish Prayers or have a pastoral need and would like to talk with the clergy, please contact The Rev. Celeste O. Cox at 302-653-4488 while our Rector, Russell Bohner, is away.

For Church activities and announcements, please read The Messenger, which is posted in the Great Hall and Café area, and on the website: www.SaintAnnesChurchDE.org. To receive The Messenger via email, please email the Church Office at Office@SaintAnnesChurchDE.org.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord. The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

Reader The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 2:11-22

Remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called "the uncircumcision" by those who are called "the circumcision" - a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands - remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

Reader The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

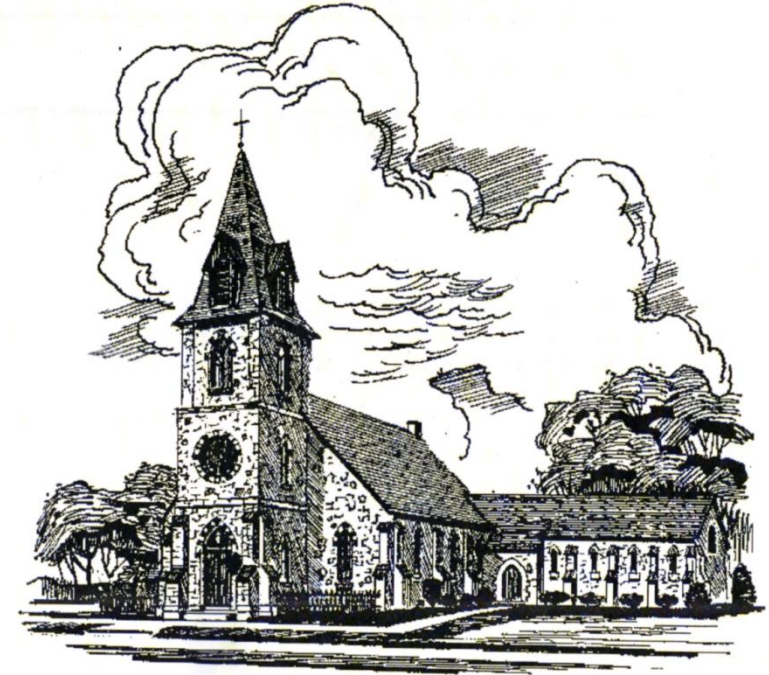

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord. People Praise be to thee, O Christ.
