FIRST READING: 1 Kings 17:8-16

The word of the Lord came to Elijah, saying, "Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you." So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink." As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." But she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the Lord sends rain on the earth." She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

GOSPEL: Mark 12:38-44

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

As Jesus taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THIS WEEK AT SAINT ANNE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Parish Prayers

We pray for William Cosans, Cheryl Harris, and Alan White.

The Altar flowers are given in loving memory of Lawrence & Florence Jester by Becky & Chip Roberts.

In the Episcopal Church in Delaware, we pray for Saint Anne's and Saint Andrew's Schools and for the Members of the Episcopal Church in Delaware Council.

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for the Episcopal Church of Cuba.

2019 Pledge Campaign To continue our Christ centered worship, ministry, and mission, Saint Anne's Church depends upon the financial contributions of its members, and we ask every member to make a generous financial pledge to support Saint Anne's in 2019. A financial pledge is a promise we make and a sign of our commitment as members of the Church. To determine the amount of your pledge, please reflect on the many ways that—through our worship, fellowship, and service—Saint Anne's is a blessing to you and our community. To make your pledge, please complete a 2019 Pledge Card and mail it to the Church Office or place it in the Sunday collection. If you prefer, you may email your pledge to Office@SaintAnnesChurchDE.org. Pledges of all amounts are welcome, and all pledges are kept strictly confidential. Please contact Fr. Russ if you have any questions. Thank you!

19th Annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner Nov. 22nd, from Noon to 3 p.m. in the Great Hall. This dinner is only made possible through the generosity of our community.
